A LOVELY RESIDENCE!!...This recently fully renovated three bedroom semi-detached home, is located in the convenient area of Mansfield, only a short distance away from local amenities. This property boasts a spacious interior and would make a terrific family home. Let's take a peek inside..

The ground floor presents you with a modern open plan layout, complimented by solid wood flooring throughout. Starting with the kitchen which offers a stunning range of cabinets and worktop units with further space for appliances, making it simple to show off your culinary skills. From here you will gain access to a lovely dining area, complemented beautifully with patio doors, brining the outside inside. This creates a wonderful entertaining space when having family & friends over. Finally you will find the warm and cosy living room, with a feature fireplace and bay front window allowing a wealth of natural daylight to flow through.

Heading upstairs, you will find three bedrooms all offering space for your own furnishings. The bathroom is separate and can be found just next door and complete with a stylish three-piece suite, the perfect area to relax and unwind. Interested so far?

The garden continues to impress with a well maintained lawn, paved seating area and decorative surrounding shrubs. To the front you will find a gated entrance giving access to a private driveway and garage allowing for ample off road parking. Call today book a viewing on this incredible family home!
