A LOVELY HOME TO MAKE YOUR OWN

A traditional home with plenty of potential and a new chapter waiting to begin.

With its attractive stone frontage and traditional feel, this mid-terrace home offers a wonderful opportunity for a buyer looking to put their own stamp on a property. While it would benefit from modernisation throughout, it remains liveable and provides a practical layout with three bedrooms, two reception rooms and an enclosed rear yard. For a first-time buyer or someone looking for a project with potential, this is a home ready for a little imagination, some thoughtful updating and a new lease of life.

THE FINER DETAILS

A traditional three-bedroom mid-terraced home with two reception rooms, a separate kitchen, first-floor bathroom and enclosed rear yard, offering plenty of scope for modernisation.

The ground floor offers two separate reception rooms, providing flexibility for everyday living, dining or creating a more individual space to suit your needs. The kitchen is positioned to the rear of the property, with access through to the rest of the home. While the interior would benefit from updating, the existing layout provides a good starting point for anyone keen to make a home their own.

The first floor offers two bedrooms with the main bedroom having built in wardrobes for added storage alongside the family bathroom, with stairs leading up to the third bedroom on the floor above. This unusual arrangement provides a little separation between the sleeping spaces, with scope to refresh the rooms and make them your own.

The property has an attractive traditional frontage with a stone-style finish, giving it plenty of kerb appeal. To the rear, an enclosed yard with an out building for added storage, providing a private outdoor space that is straightforward to maintain and offers scope to make it your own.
