About This Property

Beautifully presented throughout, this attractive semi-detached house occupies a fantastic position within the popular Sherwood area of Nottingham, offering stylish and versatile accommodation. The property is offered furnished, with the exception of the third bedroom, providing an excellent opportunity for those seeking a ready-to-move-into home. The entrance hall features attractive parquet-effect flooring and useful under-stair storage, leading into a welcoming living room with a double-width opening into the stunning open-plan dining room. The dining area benefits from French doors opening onto the garden and flows seamlessly into the stylish fitted kitchen, which features ample units, marble-effect worktops, breakfast bar and a range of integrated appliances. To the first floor are three bedrooms, including a versatile third bedroom currently arranged as an office but equally suited to use as a nursery, together with a contemporary bathroom fitted with a white suite, two-way rainfall shower over the bath and stylish brass finishes. Outside, the enclosed rear garden provides a pleasant combination of lawn with gravel borders, decking and a paved patio area, while the driveway offers useful off-street parking. Ideally situated within this popular and friendly community, the property is conveniently positioned for Sherwood's excellent range of shops, cafes, restaurants and everyday amenities, with frequent bus links providing easy access into Nottingham city centre and surrounding areas.
