AGENTS NOTE

The village of Hunsdon boasts two excellent pubs, The award winning Fox and Hounds along with the traditional Crown public house. In addition there is a petrol garage and an excellent Post office and store in the near by village of Much Hadham. The transport links are very good with Harlow Town station providing a 30 minute service by train to London and in addition, Roydon and St Margaret's Stations are close by. The location is perfect for those who wish to enjoy the surrounding countryside with many footpaths and bridleways to explore. Both state and private education is very well catered for with Heath Mount, Duncombe school, St Edmunds College, Haileybury and Bishops Stortford College all within easy reach along with Hunsdon JMI Primary and St Andrew's C of E Primary School and Nursery in Much Hadham.

There is a variety of active organisations for all ages including Badminton and Gardening Club, Baby and Toddler group, Scouts, Cubs and Beavers all held in the Village Hall
