A well-kept and extended two-bedroom end-of-terrace home set in a quiet close just a short walk from the High Street. The layout works well, with a refitted kitchen at the front featuring a central island, and a 23ft lounge/diner at the rear opening into an orangery that looks out over the courtyard garden, which catches the afternoon sun. The ground floor also includes a WC and underfloor heating. Upstairs, there are two good-sized bedrooms and a modern refitted bathroom. Outside, the side and rear courtyard-style gardens are private and easy to maintain, and there is off-street parking for two vehicles at the front along with an EV charging point. Double glazed and centrally heated, the property is in good order throughout and offers a straightforward, move-in-ready option in a convenient central location.
