Detached Home on a 0.3-Acre Plot offering Space, Flexibility and a Peaceful Setting

Tucked away in a quiet, well-regarded part of town, this extended four-bedroom detached home sits on a generous 0.3-acre plot and offers an impressive amount of space, both inside and out. It's a property that adapts easily to different lifestyles, whether you're looking for room for a growing family, space to work from home, or the potential for multi-generational living. The ground floor is particularly versatile, with two comfortable double bedrooms and a wide choice of living areas. A bright lounge looks out over the garden, while the formal dining room, snug, family room and dedicated study give you the freedom to shape the layout to suit your need, be it work, relaxation or entertaining. The modern kitchen/breakfast room, supported by a practical utility area, keeps day-to-day life running smoothly. The south-facing rear garden is a real highlight. Exceptionally private and beautifully tended, it enjoys sunlight throughout the day and offers a mix of mature planting, quiet corners to sit and unwind, and a productive kitchen garden. It's a space that feels calm and secluded, ideal for outdoor dining, children's play or simply enjoying the surroundings. A generous driveway to the front provides ample off-street parking.
