Perfectly positioned for city professionals or couples, this unique and spacious home boasts an array of features designed for comfort and convenience.

The apartment showcases a spacious layout, and large sash windows that frame views of the communal gardens. The rich history of the building is reflected in the carefully preserved features, including high ceilings, stripped floorboards, which adds warmth and character throughout the space.

Both bedrooms are generously sized, with the principal bedroom benefiting from an en-suite bathroom. The second bedroom, ideal for guests or as a home office, also offers plenty of storage space. The kitchen is functional, offering a perfect space for preparing meals.

The en-suite and large bathroom feature elegant tiling and premium fittings, including a walk-in shower and bathtub.

Located just moments from Bow Road station, this apartment provides easy access to the best of East London, including vibrant markets, shops and an array of cafes and restaurants.

Tredegar House has a rich history that spans several centuries. The building itself is a striking example of Georgian architecture, dating back to the 18th century.
