Measuring in at 822 Sq Ft the property comprises a bright and expansive open plan living room that incorporates floor-to-ceiling height sliding doors leading to a private full width terrace that has uninterrupted views of the River Lea. Positioned at the other end is the kitchen area which blends a mix of modern and contemporary design with minimalism from its flat-front cabinetry, sleek fixtures and upstands. Completing the property are two good-sized bedrooms (one with en-suite and fitted wardrobes) and a smart, fully tiled bathroom and generous storage cupboards.

The property also benefits from secure video entry system, gated communal spaces, access to landscaped communal gardens and ample secure bicycle storage.

The development benefits from a community feel, a dedicated Facebook group and friendly neighbours.

Fish Island Village is on the edge of Hackney Wick, which is now a thriving, cultural creative hub comprising independent cafes, bars and warehouse pop-up art galleries, this energetic neighbourhood will be a truly inspiring place to live. Ideal for both budding entrepreneurs and anyone looking to embrace the creative vibe of this hidden gem.

Building on the area's legacy, this bold vision of a village fuses traditional industrial architecture with forward-thinking design. The creation of a sustainable and supportive environment for all that live and work here is front of mind and this vision has been conceptualised in partnership with Island House.

Retail therapy's covered when dusk falls in nearby Stratford, grab a cocktail at the Print House or head to funky urban hangout Roof East. Situated on the roof of the Stratford Centre's multi-storey car park, the venue hosts regular open-air cinema
