This period-style conversion blends heritage with convenience, being ideally located within a short walk of Billericay Station and the vibrant High Street, offering easy access to shops, restaurants, and excellent transport links.

Occupying a prime position between Stock Road and Norsey Road, the chapel enjoys a peaceful yet central setting. The property is offered with no onward chain and benefits from two allocated parking spaces, making it as practical as it is charming.

Grey Lady Place is a beautifully arranged ground floor residence offering approximately 98.1 square metres (1,055.9 sq. ft) of well-proportioned living space. From the moment you enter the entrance hall, you are greeted by a sense of space and functionality, with convenient storage cupboards to help keep life organised.

Moving straight ahead, the home opens up into a spacious lounge with an incredible vaulted ceiling offering a real sense of space. Large windows flood the room with natural light, creating a bright and airy atmosphere.

Adjacent to the lounge is the kitchen, a practical and stylish space. It's well-appointed with modern fittings and ample room for meal preparation.

Heading back through the hall, you'll find the first bedroom to your right, a comfortable double that could also serve as a guest room, home office or nursery.

Next door is the second bedroom, a generously sized principal suite, complete with a private en-suite bathroom featuring a shower, sink, and WC.

Completing the internal layout is the main bathroom, conveniently located off the hallway and fitted with a full-sized bathtub, wash basin, and WC.

This property offers a harmonious blend of open-plan living and private comfort, perfect for a variety of lifestyles. Whether you're downsizing, investing, or stepping onto the property ladder.
