Originally dating from 1870, the building blends classic period charm with modern sophistication, and this particular apartment — the largest in the development — is a rare opportunity to own a truly unique home in the heart of Theydon Bois.

Lovingly maintained by its current and only owners for the past 11 years, the property spans two beautifully designed floors, with bright, airy interiors, generous proportions, and a sense of quiet refinement throughout. From the moment you enter, the space offers an immediate feeling of comfort, quality, and understated elegance.

Positioned just a short walk from the picturesque village green, this penthouse enjoys the best of village life, with an excellent selection of restaurants, pubs, independent shops and cafés all within easy reach. Theydon Bois Central Line station is just minutes away on foot, providing direct access into the City and West End, making it ideal for commuters or those seeking a refined base close to London.

Surrounded by the natural beauty of Epping Forest and open countryside, this property combines peaceful, scenic living with unrivalled convenience. Whether you're looking for a full-time residence or a luxurious retreat, this is a truly special home in an enviable location — stylish, spacious, and wonderfully serene.
