The ground floor features an inviting entrance hall leading to a formal reception room, which flows seamlessly into a stunning kitchen/diner. The kitchen provides direct access to the south-facing garden, creating a wonderful space for both indoor and outdoor entertaining.

On the first floor, there are two generously sized double bedrooms, complemented by a well-appointed family bathroom. The master bedroom on this floor benefits from fitted wardrobes, offering ample storage space.

The second floor is dedicated to an elegant master suite, complete with an en-suite bathroom, ensuring privacy and comfort.

Externally, the south-facing rear garden is perfect for al fresco dining, with a decked area ideal for summer evenings. The garden is bordered by mature shrubs, adding to its charm and privacy. To the front of the property, there is off-street parking for two vehicles on a block-paved driveway.

Situated in the highly desirable area of Loughton, this property enjoys the scenic beauty of being on the edge of Epping Forest. Excellent transport links, including Loughton Underground Station and proximity to the M11 and M25, provide easy access into London. Loughton is renowned for its outstanding schools, both state and private, as well as its vibrant selection of boutiques, restaurants, and bars, making it a highly sought-after location for families and professionals alike.
