One of the property's key assets is its wonderful location with far-reaching views over the surrounding countryside, enhanced by deep floor to ceiling windows.

The ground floor accommodation features a light and airy spacious open plan lounge/dining area which has high vaulted ceilings with the added bonus of a drinks bar which has been recently added, perfect for entertaining with the family and friends. With access to a mezzanine area which can be used as an office but perfect if somebody wants to unwind and read a book in peace with a glass of bubbly. The barn has five large double bedrooms, three of which have en-suites and all have a good amount of storage. The bespoke kitchen is simply stunning with quartz topped island and modern throughout, with bi-folding doors that lead onto the patio which features a BBQ area.

Externally the property is gated with space for numerous vehicles with the added bonus of a car port/garage, where the garage can be used as a home office or a gym. You also have access to a separate annex which is another barn which has been completely renovated just over two years ago. With a significant 3-4 acres (approx) of land surrounding the garden, which can be negotiated separately.

Theydon Barn is situated between the sought after villages of Theydon Bois, Abridge and nearby towns of Loughton, Chigwell and Epping. It is well placed for local amenities including a comprehensive range of shops, bars, restaurants and leisure facilities. Transport links into London are excellent with central line tube stations at Theydon Bois, Epping and Loughton plus the added benefit of good access to M25 & M11 motorways. There are several well regarded state and private schools within easy reach, some with transport pick up points locally.
