This Tudor timber and weather-boarded Essex home exudes character and individuality, showcasing an abundance of period features throughout.

Spanning over three floors, the ground floor space comprises a separate kitchen, living room, dining area, lounge, playroom, WC, and conservatory, with feature beams in many rooms on this floor, adding to the property's character. This versatile and spacious layout provides ample room for family living and entertaining, all while enjoying the historical ambiance of the home.

On the first floor, you will find four well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. The master bedroom benefits from an en-suite bathroom, offering privacy and convenience. Finally, the second floor houses the fifth bedroom, providing a perfect retreat or additional guest accommodation. This Grade-II listed property effortlessly combines historical charm with modern living spaces, making it a truly unique and desirable home.

The large gardens, extending to just over 1/3rd of an acre, are adorned with mature trees, offering a sense of seclusion and tranquility. The property benefits from gas central heating, providing modern comfort while maintaining its historical charm.

Located in the heart of the perennially-popular village of Theydon Bois, the cottage is just a short walk from local shops, cafes, and the Central Line station. This prime location offers the best of both worlds: a peaceful village life with the vibrant City of London just 45 minutes away.
