St Johns Road is a popular residential turning in an excellent position for those who enjoy the forest and the outdoor activities that come with it, yet it is still situated close to the high street with many shops, bars and restaurants on offer. Loughan has excellent transport links into London with the tube station within easy reach and good road connections including M11 & M25 both within ten minutes of access by car. There are several well-regarded state and private schools nearby and a variety of leisure facilities including golf courses and sports clubs. A particular feature of the location is the proximity of the forest which lies roughly 300 yards away.
