Upon entering, you are welcomed by a spacious and bright through reception room, enjoying dual aspect views to the front and rear, and enhanced by the character of original parquet flooring. This leads seamlessly into a sleek, high-specification kitchen and dining area, complete with premium integrated appliances and direct access to the garden through glazed doors—creating a perfect space for everyday living and entertaining.

All bedrooms are generously proportioned and flooded with natural light. The principal bedroom benefits from a recently fitted en-suite shower room, while a modern family shower room serves the remaining rooms. The fourth bedroom offers flexible use, making it ideal as a study, guest room, or nursery.

One of the standout features of Glentarras is the exceptional rear garden, extending to approximately 68ft. Thoughtfully designed for both beauty and ease of maintenance, it features a large patio area for alfresco dining, raised lawns, and mature planting that offers year-round interest and colour.

Further benefits include underfloor heating throughout, ample storage, home office, and off-street parking, all within a peaceful and desirable residential setting.
