Accommodation is arranged over two floors comprising an inviting entrance hall with doors initially leading to a formal reception room (currently used as the playroom) which boasts of a remote controlled gas fire and feature TV wall. Also leading on from the entrance hall, is the most impressive kitchen/lounge/diner which has been heavily extended and offering the very best of modern day living with an abundance of natural light flowing through both the rear bi-folding doors and impressive skylight. In particular note, is the striking quartz worktops running throughout the kitchen which has also been furnished with a range of integrated AEG appliances.

The first floor hosts three bedrooms and a stylish family bathroom, with the master offering fully fitted wardrobes. There's also various examples of neighbouring properties in the road who've set precedent for further extensions such as loft conversions subject to the usual planning consents.

Externally, the house is approached via a recently landscaped garden boarded by a low level brick built wall and side access leading to the rear garden extending close to 50ft, with partial decking and lawn then leading to the spectacular detached studio room which is currently occupied as a gymnasium but also lends itself to a various amount of other usages such as home office or games room. The rear garden is then complete with a garage accessed down the side of the property.

Victoria Avenue is ideally located for all of Collier Rows shops & Local amenities and sits only 15 minutes to Romford station or Hainault central line station for direct links into all corners of London. There are also great commuter roads for Essex and London areas by way of the A12, A127 and M25.
