This exceptional development offers 159 stylish studio, one and two-bedroom apartments, designed for modern living including wheelchair accessible homes. Residents can also benefit from the luxury of two roof terraces on the first and top floors – the perfect location for relaxation and socialising.

Upper East offers a selection of studio, one and two-bedroom apartments, each boasting a private balcony where many residents can take in stunning views of Canary Wharf, The City and Stratford.

These homes are thoughtfully crafted, blending comfort, style and functionality to support a busy city lifestyle. The interiors feature stylish indigo kitchens by Symphony, complemented by elegant composite quartz work surfaces and Bosch appliances, perfect for those who love to cook and entertain. Luxurious bathrooms are designed with quality fittings and Porcelanosa wall and floor tiles.

Living areas showcase Amtico herringbone flooring, while the bedrooms offer quality fitted carpets for ultimate comfort. Additionally, all apartments include underfloor heating, ensuring a warm and inviting environment throughout the year.

The spacious roof terraces on the first and top floors are the ideal spots to soak in the sun with your friends and family. These terraces, adorned with pergolas, planters, picnic tables and sun loungers, are beautifully landscaped with trees and shrubs, creating a serene setting with breath taking views.

The first floor terrace also includes a children's play area. A charming public pocket park enhances the neighbourhood spirit offering a children's play area where families can connect, whilst fitness enthusiasts will appreciate the outdoor gym facilities promoting an active lifestyle. Additionally, the beautifully designed spaces include
