This exceptional period home on Mornington Road exudes charm and character, boasting a wealth of original features throughout. The property seamlessly blends timeless elegance across three spacious floors with modern family living.

The ground floor welcomes you with an inviting hallway leading to a grand living room, where a striking fireplace, intricate ceiling roses, and elegant corning set the tone for the home's classic style. The separate dining room, equally rich in period detailing, provides a refined space for entertaining, while the well-appointed kitchen leads to a convenient utility room and WC.

The first floor hosts four beautifully proportioned bedrooms, each featuring high ceilings and large windows that flood the spaces with natural light. A stylish family bathroom serves this level, offering both function and sophistication. Ascending to the second floor, the primary bedroom is a true retreat, complete with an en-suite and characterful touches that enhance the home's heritage charm.

A standout feature is the studio in the garden perfect for homeworking.

Retaining an abundance of period features, including fireplaces, decorative corning, and ceiling roses, this remarkable home offers an elegant yet practical lifestyle in a sought-after location with excellent access to local amenities, schools, and transport links.

Living on Mornington Road in North Chingford offers residents a harmonious blend of natural beauty and urban convenience. This peaceful street, lined with distinguished Edwardian homes, leads directly to the expansive Epping Forest, providing immediate access to scenic walks and outdoor activities. Perched high above the city, many properties boast views extending to the glass towers beyond
