An end of terrace family home situated on the peripheries of Barcombe village.

The house has had a full eco makeover and is future-proofed with very low energy and water bills. Upgrades include super-insulation throughout, triple glazing, solar electric and thermal water heating systems, underfloor heating on the ground floor, a wood pellet heating system and a rainwater harvesting system for flushing the toilets and running the washing machine.

The property has been extended to provide a large open-plan living area for modern family living, with generously sized rooms and a loft conversion. The light and airy property is beautifully presented throughout and features exposed floorboards, generous front and rear gardens and far-reaching views over woodlands to the rear.

The front door opens into a Victorian style glass porch which leads into a sitting room with a wood-fired stove and built-in shelving units and cabinets. A panelled door leads to the open-plan kitchen, dining and living room. The kitchen/diner boasts a modern fitted kitchen comprising of a range of wall and base units with cupboards and drawers and a freestanding range cooker. The living area features double bi-fold doors opening up to the rear garden and enjoys stunning views over the garden and woodlands as far as the eye can see. Downstairs also benefits from a bathroom and utility room.

Upstairs we find 2 double bedrooms and a modern family bathroom. Bedroom 1 enjoys views of the front garden and whilst bedroom 2 enjoys views over the rear garden. Both bedrooms feature fireplaces and generous built-in wardrobes. The bathroom comprises a modern shower, WC and hand basin all with modern tiled surrounds. On the second-floor loft conversion we find bedroom 3 with an exposed beam ceiling and views over the gardens.

To the outside we find a wildlife front garden and beautiful rear garden with lawns, sitting areas, vegetable beds, shrubs and trees.
