'The Rowans' is an impressive and substantial, detached period property which has since been converted into four 'mansion style' apartments, situated on what is widely considered to be one of Lewes' premier roads within the highly sought after Wallands area. This particular two/three bedroom, split-level apartment is arranged over the first and second floors and is offered with the rare and added benefit of an allocated parking space and a balcony terrace..

This delightful home is neutrally decorated retains many features synonymous with the architectural era in which the property was built have been retained and briefly include stained glass windows to the private front door, a bay window and decorative ceiling cornicing in the living room, high ceilings and fireplaces in part. A freshly decorated communal hallway with grand staircase leads to the front door on the first floor which opens into the entrance hall with a fitted cupboard and a door to a private split-level balcony enjoying obscured views towards the Sussex countryside beyond.

Of particular note to this apartment is the 16 ft living room which centres around a feature fireplace and has a walk-in bay window which allows the space to be flooded with natural light. The modern kitchen comprises a range of units in a white gloss design with maple wood work surfaces, a period style sink and space for appliances. Also on this floor is the 12 ft master bedroom with a feature fireplace, fitted cupboard and a pair of secondary glazed windows affording views over the treetops and a family bathroom with a white suite.

Stairs ascend to the upper floor from the entrance hall and lead to a 15 ft 'walk through' bedroom with a door opening to the second bedroom/ ideal study space with fitted wardrobes and elevated countryside views. The property further benefits from gas central heating throughout and an allocated off street parking space for one car located to the front of the building.
