A superb example of a period terraced property located in an enviable location overlooking the Pells Pond. The accommodation is beautifully presented and benefits from a bay fronted lounge, dining room and extended kitchen/breakfast opening onto the garden. Four bedrooms, three of them double bedrooms, one with an en-suite and a spacious bathroom. There are many character features including feature fireplaces, sash windows and wood flooring to the ground floor. Long front garden and good size rear garden with raised decked terrace. Far reaching views across Lewes and towards The Castle. A great sized garden for Lewes - very family friendly

The kitchen has been extended with glass roof, creating a dining area and then straight out into the rear garden
