A great opportunity to purchase a modernised, spacious family home benefitting from three Bedrooms, bathrooms up and downstairs, generous reception space, front and rear gardens, dedicated work from home space and a rare to find driveway and garage

This comfortable, light and airy family home is located in the popular Malling area of Lewes - a ten minute walk into the centre of town with local shops, open countryside and schools close by.

The property benefits from a south-facing position with the rear garden soaking up the sunny aspect. It also offers views across Lewes town to the South Downs beyond.

The house has been modernised throughout in recent years with the addition of a new kitchen and bathroom, flooring and décor throughout. It offers flexible accommodation across two floors, ideal for family life!

This family home has a comfortable sitting room with cosy wood burner. The modern kitchen / dining room has contemporary grey front with solid wood worktops with space for all appliances. This room flows through to the dining room with panoramic views over the rear garden.. There is also a further room with side access to the front and back of the house - currently used as a home office but could also be an art room or family room depending on your families needs. Next to this sits a very useful downstairs bathroom.

On the first floor are two double bedrooms with views , a single bedroom, and a newly fitted family bathroom with seperate wc.

The front garden is landscaped with a number of shrubbery beds and lawn with a path to the modern front door..

The rear garden is a real joy, as well as being south-facing, offers a newly installed decked terrace, a well stocked garden with lawn, planted beds, small trees and bushes - ideal for families and gardeners alike.

Of special note is the rear driveway and detached garage, a rare find and valuable indeed !

This is a great all-round family home in a popular residential area and close to all amenities. Internal viewings are highly recommended.
