

Hereward Way, Lewes

Hereward Way is conveniently situated within the ever popular Old Malling area of Lewes, being within walking distance of the nearby primary school & the historic town centre with its comprehensive range of shopping facilities & mainline railway station (London Victoria 70 minutes). A local bus service serves the Malling area & the house is within moments of the open South Downs countryside.

Lewes is a great place to shop with so many independent, antique and quirky shops. It is also the perfect place to stop for a bite to eat or a drink in one of the many eclectic pubs. The town also boasts a working brewery situated in the heart of the community on the banks of the River Ouse. Commuters abound with a mainline railway station (London/Victoria just over the hour) found at the bottom of Station Street, which in turn leads off the High Street. There are three supermarkets, the acclaimed independent Depot cinema, leisure centre, tertiary college, along with well regarded primary and senior schools. The Universities of Sussex and Brighton and the coast at Brighton are found 6 and 9 miles away respectively and the famous Glyndebourne Opera House is about 3 miles away on the outskirts of Ringmer. The Downs and local countryside are a paradise for walkers, cyclists and nature lovers. Lewes is situated just off the South Downs way and within the magnificent South Downs National Park.
