A beautiful example of an extensively refurbished and improved character cottage, located on a seldom used road off Lewes High Street and moments from the mainline Railway Station.

This 2 double bedroom property enjoys far-reaching views onto Lewes Castle and the South Downs and features a landscaped courtyard garden with modern outbuilding. The ground floor of the property also benefits from underfloor heating.

The front door opens into the modern kitchen breakfast room which incorporates integral appliances and Corian work surfaces and breakfast bar.

The living room has been extended and features bi-fold doors onto the garden, a partially vaulted ceiling with roof window and a door providing side access.

The cellar has been tanked and has been decorated allowing the room to be used for a variety of purposes. The cellar room has approx 5'10 head height and a window to the front.

The first floor landing has panelled doors with latches to bedroom 1 and the family bathroom and stairs continue to the second floor.

Bedroom 1 has a sash window to the front and fitted wardrobes.

The family bathroom has been completed to a high standard with a bath with shower over, WC and wash hand basin.

Bedroom 2 on the second floor benefits from dual aspect with a vaulted ceiling reaching approx. 6'10 and features far-reaching views of Lewes Castle and the South Downs.

To the outside we find a landscaped rear garden of a westerly aspect and a recently constructed brick built outbuilding with double doors.
