A classic Lewes two bedroom mid-terrace home located off the main roads within 30 seconds walk of the local shop and 10 minutes walk into the historic town centre.

The property benefits from a front sitting room with fireplace, a second dining room with arch open to a larger than average kitchen. The first floor landing offers a family bathroom and two double bedrooms. The garden is accessed via the kitchen and has a lower courtyard area and upper south-facing garden area, ideal for catching the sun.

The property has been recently decorated and benefits from original features including original stripped pine internal doors.

Others in the road have converted the loft into a third bedroom, which would be possible subject to planning and building regulations.

Valence Road is a quiet lane on the edge of the Wallands area, just to the west of Lewes town centre, thus having easy access to the A23/A27 to Brighton, the universities, Gatwick and London. The property is close to South Down walks and easy for the excellent Leicester Road Stores on the corner and the popular Wallands Primary School. Lewes' historic centre is less than ten minutes walk with its attractive period buildings, individual shops, pubs, cafes and restaurants, as well as the fine new Depot Cinema.
