Asking Price £725,000 Flying Freehold

Freehold:- Tucked away in a secluded, highly coveted position, this exceptional property offers a rare opportunity to acquire a residence where natural beauty, privacy, and potential converge. Surrounded by lush, mature woodland and commanding views across a dramatic valley to the sea beyond, this unique property redefines tranquillity and exclusivity.

At the heart of the woodland lies a modernised two-bedroom bungalow, finished to a high standard internally, offering a seamless blend of comfort and contemporary living. The window frames a scene of cinematic beauty — whether it's the rustling canopy of the surrounding woodland or the glistening coastline in the distance.

Beyond the main residence, a charming woodland cabin nestled on an elevated deck provides a captivating retreat. With views stretching across the treetops to the sea, it offers an idyllic space for creative inspiration, guest accommodation, or simply a place to unwind in perfect harmony with nature.

The grounds themselves are expansive and brimming with possibility. With full planning permission granted for a private driveway and ample scope to extend or reconfigure the existing structures (Planning approved to create a second floor with balcony), this is a rare canvas for visionary buyers seeking to create a legacy home in a setting that is both peaceful and profoundly beautiful. One parking space. Service:- Electric Heating, No Gas. Heating Rate is a Grade A+, bore hole water, house construction block, internal cavity wall insulated. One Parking space is agreed with the Parish.

This is a truly unique opportunity and viewings come highly recommended by the vendors sole agent.
