What the owner says:

"This is our first flat and it couldn't be better located: we're less than 15 minutes' walk from two rail stations, including the Brighton mainline, and we've loved being so close to the shops, pubs, and cafes of Lewes Road, London Road, and the Open Market. The flat is warm and bright, and with two floors and loads of storage space it feels much more like a house. We've really made the most of the private roof terrace, even though we don't always need it with the seafront a 20-minute walk away and The Level just around the corner!"
