What the owner says:

"I regret having to leave this beautiful, peaceful flat, and know that I will miss it dearly. The long, quiet evenings and gorgeous sunsets seen through the big, bright living room windows will be my most enduring memory, especially when I was sharing meals with friends and conversation with friends, or sitting reading and listening to the birds singing in the big garden spaces below. The light is its most captivating feature, either through the large windows in the living room, or through the Velux roof window over the bed. A close second is its proximity to almost everything: ten minutes from the beach, ten minutes from the station, and fifteen minutes from the north lane, and with a smattering of wonderful little coffee shops, pubs and restaurants all within a couple of minutes walk. My neighbours are great people, full of warmth and character and the neighbourhood feels like a community. Living here has been a very happy time in my life."
