What the owner says:

"I have been living in Brighton for many years and it was an exciting time when I could finally buy my own place here. This flat caught my eye as soon as I visited it. It is in a perfect location in a nice quiet and friendly neighborhood, up the hill takes you into beautiful coastal walks and down hill is a short walk into town and all the shops. The flat has nice sized rooms and the kitchen provides plenty of surface space to cook. Needless to say I am in love with the garden and it has been a great place to spend quiet times and host dinner parties."
