What the owner says:

"We purchased this maisonette because we immediately saw its appeal as a well-located Brighton home. Its combination of generous proportions, character features and excellent position close to the seafront and the amenities of central Brighton made it an attractive property from the outset. Over the years it has proved to be an exceptionally easy property to let, with tenants appreciating the convenience of being able to enjoy the best of Brighton right on the doorstep, while having a comfortable and practical home to return to. We hope the next owner will enjoy everything this property and its location have to offer."
