What the owner says:

"We've lived at Carn Court for the past 11 years and are sad to be leaving the flats, given the close community and great neighbors that have become friends. It's a peaceful area while still so close to town, the beach, local shops and cafes. The park is beautiful, we'll miss hearing the tennis club in the mornings and walking down to the cafes for coffee on the weekend. The flat is really comfortable and cosy, the spacious bedroom and living room give it a lot of space. There's plenty of storage space and the flat gardens are looked after and used by residents. It's a great space in a great area of the city!"
