What the owner says:

"I was first drawn in by the openness of the property. Developers often wedge a few counters into a living room and call it a kitchen, but here there is a real sense of space and homeliness. The options for layout are endless. The sea is under 5 mins' walk, and all the shops and restaurants on Western Road are even closer – as are many bus routes across the city. Despite being so central, visitors always comment on how quiet and private the flat is. I am extremely lucky to have flexible and organised people in the wider building, meaning practical matters are always quickly dealt with. I could not have asked for an easier or more peaceful place to live."
