Accommodation

The Red House combines timeless elegance with the potential for thoughtful updating to meet the needs of modern family living. All rooms are light and bright and the layout has an appealing flow as shown in the accompanying floorplan. Period features including 17th-century style panelling, intricately moulded and dentil corning, and original fireplaces. The remainder of the ground floor comprises a traditional kitchen, breakfast room, practical boot room, and a guest cloakroom, offering scale and proportion throughout this home. The first floor offers six beautiful bedrooms, each with its own charm and character. There are two well-appointed bathrooms, a shower room, and a cloakroom, providing both comfort and flexibility for family living.

The Old Surgery

Nestled within the garden setting, The Old Surgery is a charming, self-contained cottage, an ideal retreat for guests. The accommodation includes two bedrooms, a bathroom, a cosy sitting room, and a fitted kitchen.

Outside

Complementing the main residence and cottage are a range of versatile outbuildings. One is currently a dedicated workshop, one is a storehouse for garden equipment and there is a double garage with a spacious storage room above perfect for a home office (subject to planning).

To the south of the garden lies a private, enclosed area housing a heated swimming pool and an elegant pool house, perfect for relaxation. The gardens meet the Heron Stream, a scenic chalk stream that meanders through the heart of the town – adding to the property's appeal. In total the grounds extend to approximately 0.48 acres.

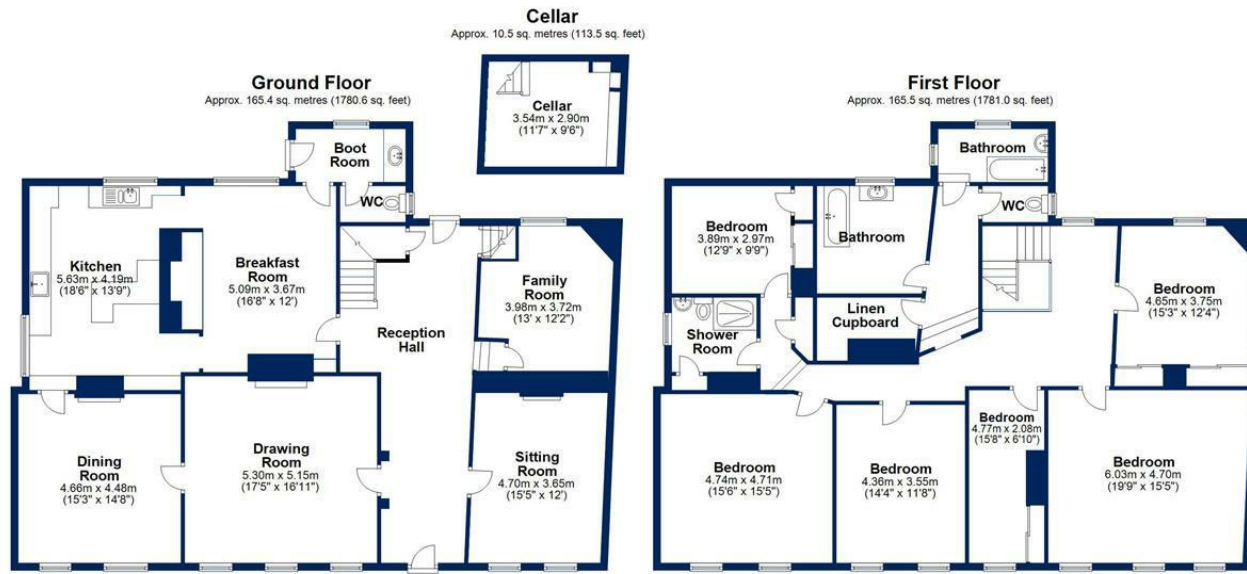

Additional Land (Available Separately)

An adjacent plot of approximately 0.47 acres is available by separate negotiation, providing exciting potential for expansion, additional garden space, or a future project (subject to necessary consents).

Location

Wendover stands as a hidden treasure, blending the tranquility of rural living with the convenience of access to London. Nestled amid the scenic Chiltern Hills, with a bustling weekly market, families in Buckinghamshire have access to excellent Grammar schools or private education. Wendover is less than 50 minutes from London connected with mainline trains to Marylebone.
