Ashleigh , Thirsk, YO7 3NL
Price Guide £365,000

Set in a well-regarded village position, this detached bungalow offers generous and practical living space with manageable gardens and open views across surrounding countryside. The layout will suit buyers seeking single-level living without compromising on space, and the property is offered to the market with no onward chain, allowing for a straightforward move. Early viewing is recommended to appreciate the setting and overall potential.

The Property

The reception hall provides a central point to the home, giving access to most of the accommodation. The living room sits to the front elevation, with a large window bringing in good natural light and a decorative fireplace forming the focal point, believed to have originally been an open fire. To the rear, the dining area comfortably accommodates a full dining suite and has a glazed door with sidelights opening directly onto the garden.

The kitchen is positioned adjacent to the dining space and is fitted with a range of base and wall units, offering good storage and worktop space. There is a window and door to the rear garden, along with a further internal door leading to the utility room.

There are three bedrooms in total, including two doubles and a single, along with a useful storage cupboard off the hallway. The shower room is fitted with a step-in shower, WC and wash hand basin.

Externally, the property stands within manageable gardens to both the front and rear. A flagged seating area to the rear enjoys a west-facing aspect and open views across farmland. A single garage with up-and-over door and a driveway provide off-street parking for at least two vehicles.
