The village of Sowerby

The village of Sowerby links with Thirsk, but retains its own identity and is set in the heart of 'Herriot Country', the gateway to the Yorkshire Dales National Park to the west and the North Yorkshire Moors National Park to the east. Thirsk is also the Darrowby of the late 'James Herriot' (Alf Wight), famous vet and author.

On Front Street, which is the main road through the village, an avenue lined with trees, is an old timbered house and the historical village church, and over Cod Beck at the southern end is an old packhorse bridge.

Local facilities include a reputable public house and a nursing home. There are several schools in Sowerby -Thirsk School on Topcliffe Road, and also a primary school. The village is within easy access of the A1, A19/A168 for commuting both north to Teesside and south to York.

Property Description

On entry into the property is a hallway that provides access to the dining kitchen, living room, cloakroom, and stairs to the first-floor accommodation. There is also access to a useful storage cupboard.

The kitchen is well equipped with a host of integrated applicants (fridge freezer, washer dryer, gas hob, electric oven & grill), a selection of fitted base and wall units, ample work surface area, and a stainless steel sink with a mixer tap. Within the kitchen, there is also space for a table and chairs.

To the rear elevation of the property is the living room. This room has double glazed french doors which open out into the enclosed west-facing garden.

Completing the ground floor is a downstairs cloakroom which has a toilet and hand washbasin.

On the first floor, the landing provides access to two bedrooms and the house bathroom. The house bathroom is fitted with a bath with shower over and glass shower screen, toilet, and hand wash basin.

Externally this property benefits from having an enclosed west-facing garden that is lawned and has a patio area. There is also an outside tap. To the front of the property is a further lawned area with the addition of off-street parking.
