Summary

The development comprises 20 freehold bungalows and the Brigg Court apartments, as well as landscaped communal gardens. Within Brigg Court is a Homeowners' Lounge, which affords the opportunity for bungalow owners to partake in the social activities taking place within the community. There is a guest suite within Brigg Court for visitors who wish to stay (additional charges apply).

Local Area

With miles of sweeping beaches, glorious gardens, and the striking Filey Brigg – a narrow rocky peninsula that juts dramatically into the sea – Filey is the ideal spot to embrace the great outdoors. Take a leisurely stroll through the award-winning Crescent Gardens, where summer brass band concerts fill the air and panoramic views stretch across the bay. Try birdwatching from the Brigg, get a thrill from hang-gliding, or simply build sandcastles with the little ones before unwinding in a deck chair along the traditional seafront.

Golf enthusiasts and newcomers alike will enjoy Filey Golf Club, which offers both a full 18-hole course and a 9-hole short course perfect for beginners. Just nearby, Filey Brigg Country Park provides scenic walks and peaceful picnic spots. Despite its tranquil, small-town charm, Filey boasts a lively cultural calendar – from jazz and blues concerts at the local hall to the colourful and quirky annual Filey Steampunk Festival.

Better still, the beach, local shops, bus stops and Filey town centre are all just a 10-minute walk away, making everything you need easily accessible without a car. Whether you're seeking relaxation or inspiration, Filey is a place to slow down and soak it all in.
