Summary

Whitaker Grange is a friendly Retirement Living PLUS community offering one and two bedroom retirement apartments for the over 70s. All offer access to optional assisted living services and stylish shared facilities like a sociable bistro, hobby room, library room, lounge and a landscaped garden with seating.

Our development in Ossett is only a couple of minutes from the town's centre, where you'll find a range of shops, boutiques and restaurants that are the perfect place to spend an afternoon. Elsewhere in the town centre, you'll find a range of banks, a couple of supermarkets, a pharmacy and a medical practice. If you fancy a tipple, then Ossett is also home to two breweries.

Whitaker Grange offers apartments designed to make life easier, with the reassurance that staff are on-site 24 hours a day. With a range of domestic and support services plus the option of tailored personal care should you need it. An onsite bistro style restaurant serving hot or cold lunches every day, this really is life made easy.

As well as the reassurance of 24-hour staffing, all our apartments have the latest safety and security features built in. Homes are warm and energy efficient—which means cheaper living costs too. And they cleverly, and seamlessly, incorporate adaptations to make life easier as you get older.
