Whilst there is something for everyone there is certainly no obligation to participate and home owners can 'dip in and out' of activities as they wish.

THE LOCAL AREA:

The last few years have seen Newquay blossom as a destination for lovers of good food, with restaurants such as Rick Steins' Fistral taking advantage of the beachside views and fresh-caught fish to serve a classic seaside meal whilst watching the surf. But it's not all fish, there's any number of eateries located all over the town, serving everything from Cornish pasties to fish and chips, international cuisine and much, much more.

It's no secret that one of Newquay's greatest features is its beaches. There's a different beach for every day of the week, with an array of activities at each one. From Fistral where Britain's greatest surfing events are very often held, to the family friendly Towan Beach right in the centre of town, or the outlying beaches at Crantock and Watergate Bay.

Hundreds of restaurants, a beach for every day of the week, and to top it all off, it's all wrapped up in the most incredible coastal scenery. Newquay is a seaside town that you just wouldn't want to miss.

Away from the beaches and the surf, there's no shortage of other attractions in the area. Newquay Zoo is conveniently located near the centre of Newquay and has a host of exotic animals to see. There's an aquarium, a cinema, skate park, boating lake, fun for all the family at Lappa Valley and the National Trust's Trerice Manor a short distance out of town. There are all forms of golf from crazy to challenging, and none of Cornwall's other great attractions are too far away.
