Keatley Place

Keatley Place in Moreton-in-Marsh has been constructed just 350 meters from the town centre, offering coffee shops and supermarkets near to your door step. Moreton-in-Marsh train station is located just a few streets away, with a direct line to London Paddington. Keatley Place has been designed to seamlessly fit with the unique local architecture that makes the Cotswolds so appealing. The complex is located on Hospital Road, parallel to the High Street. This secluded location means that while nestled away from the hustle and bustle, the thriving community in the town is easily accessible. Keatley Place is exclusively for persons aged 60 and over and it has been designed and built by McCarthy and Stone to cater for this age group.

Local area

The development offers excellent transport links and is located just 0.5 miles from Moreton-in-Marsh Railway Station. The High Street is within 0.3 miles. Here you can find pubs, eateries and historical points of interest. Other recreational activities nearby include Queen Victoria Gardens and Moreton-in-Marsh Cricket Club, which are both within 0.5 miles of the development

Moreton-in-Marsh is a gorgeous little town in the northern Cotswolds. Once a thriving 13th century market town, you can still stock up on local produce and handmade goods at the weekly Tuesday market whose 200 stalls attract locals and visitors alike.

The High Street is lined with elegant 18th century inns and houses, while the town's oldest building, the 15th century Curfew Tower is also worth a tour. A short walk from the centre of town leads you to a local Caravan Club and the Wellington Aviation Museum where you can discover the history of the Vickers Wellington bomber. The magnificent Batsford Arboretum is less than 2 miles' walk across fields.

Entrance Hall

A large hallway with a door to storage cupboard housing washer/dryer and Gledhill boiler and Vent Axia Unit. Underfloor electric heating throughout.
