Plus, with a bistro on site, and even a salon, you won't need to leave the development estate if you don't feel like it.

You'll be able to enjoy the beautiful countryside views from your very own retirement property in Olney and the local countryside will surround you from all aspects.

Local Area

According to a survey conducted by the Sunday Times in 2018, Olney is one of the top 15 places to live in the South East. It's easy to see why Olney's so popular, too. The town is full of historic architecture, with beautiful town houses and terraced cottages lining the streets.

The town itself is also home to a wide array of independent shops and boutiques. Many of these also attract shoppers from further afield who want to marvel at the galleries, antique stores and the designer shops. Along the streets of Olney, you'll also find a large range of high street retailers, such as Costa Coffee and the Co-Op. The town also provides residents with the best of both worlds. Olney is surrounded by gorgeous countryside and lies on the River Great Ouse, but the extensive amenities of Northampton, Milton Keynes, Bedford and Wellingborough are all within 10 miles of our retirement bungalows in Olney.

High Street and Market Place are the centre of life in Olney. They're home to a great range of international restaurants, and they also play host to various markets. This includes a monthly farmers' market, a weekly general market and the annual pancake race, which has been a continual fixture of life in Olney since 1445. The local area offers everything you could need and more. As well as two large supermarkets on the doorstep, Sainsbury's is right next door, in which you'll also find an Argos. Aldi supermarket is close by and the town centre is reachable within a 15-minute stroll. There's also a bus stop directly outside the development. And, from Milton Keynes Central, you can reach London by train in just 40 minutes.
