Welcome to Edward Place – Stylish Retirement Living

Edward Place is an elegant McCarthy Stone Retirement Living Plus development, designed exclusively for the over 70s. Featuring 51 beautifully appointed one and two-bedroom apartments, this is more than just a place to live, it's a place to thrive.

Perfectly located on Churchfield Road, Edward Place offers the best of both convenience and community. Enjoy being just a short stroll from the vibrant High Street and The Heart Shopping Centre, home to cafés, restaurants, a public library, Sainsbury's, and more. With Marks & Spencer and a local cinema also close by, everything you need is right on your doorstep.

Residents enjoy access to exceptional communal facilities, including a stylish lounge where regular social events take place, perfect for meeting friends and neighbours. The on-site restaurant serves freshly prepared meals daily, alongside drinks and snacks, and even features a bistro shop for essential items like bread and milk.

Step outside and discover the beautifully landscaped private courtyard gardens, professionally maintained and brimming with colour year-round, an ideal spot to relax and unwind.

Each apartment is thoughtfully designed with comfort and practicality in mind, offering a fully fitted, accessible kitchen, and a modern walk-in shower, slip-resistant tiles. Additional features include a secure camera entry system, intruder alarms, and an on-site Estates Manager to ensure complete peace of mind.

Edward Place is fully accessible, with lifts to all floors and wheelchair-friendly design throughout, supporting independence at every level.

A dedicated Estates Management team is on-site 24 hours a day to provide help whenever it's needed. Flexible, tailored care packages are also available, offering the reassurance of extra support without compromising your independence.

This welcoming community has been carefully designed to support a fulfilling and worry-free lifestyle in later life. Discover the perfect blend of independence, support, and comfort in a safe and sociable setting.
