A beautiful family village residence with equestrian potential, blending timeless character with refined country living. Set within the heart of the picturesque village of Etton, this exceptional four bedroom period home, dating from circa 1890, combines elegant original features with considered modern enhancements. Offering generous living space, extensive gardens (almost 0.25 acre), and superb equestrian facilities, this is a rare opportunity for families seeking a peaceful yet well connected rural lifestyle.

Approached through handsome hardwood front gate, the property opens to a welcoming entrance and two elegant reception rooms positioned either side of a central staircase, each with striking fireplaces and bespoke cabinetry. To the rear, the lovely hand made kitchen and original "Briggs and Powell" range framed by the chimney breast, create a striking focal point. Adjacent are a walk in pantry with sliding cupboard doors leading to a utility room featuring a traditional pulley drying rack. A cloakroom/WC is also positioned off the hallway.

Upstairs, three double bedrooms and 1 single branch from a central landing. The principal bedroom is particularly impressive with a Victorian fireplace and fitted wardrobes, while a centrally placed family bathroom completes the first floor. the property benefits from recently installed hand built sash windows throughout and handmade drive and pedestrian hardwood gates.

Outside, the home enjoys a delightfully mature garden, accessed via steps from either side of the rear of the house, featuring a well tended lawn, a bespoke temperature controlled greenhouse, and a pretty summer house with decking.

Directly behind the house lies a brick yard with access to three outbuildings and two wooden gates to the driveways. A detached double garage, two stables and a tack room offer excellent potential for equestrian or lifestyle pursuits.

Located just one mile from Cherry Burton, a short drive to the market town of Beverley and around a 25 minute drive to Pocklington, Etton combines the peace of rural village life with easy access to amenities. The village has also recently welcomed a newly opened pub, ideal for unwinding at the end of the day.
