AGENTS NOTE

In November 2023, a pre-application for the erection of 11 dwellings and a new access road was submitted to the East Riding of Yorkshire Council's planning department.

On 18th December 2023, the planning department responded in detail and that response is available to those parties wishing to inspect it at the Agent's offices.

With this in mind, the title to the property once sold will contain a covenant which will entitle the existing owner of the property, and her heirs, should planning permission be granted for development of the extensive gardens, to a further share in the increase in value.

The enhancement will be shared 50% to each party, with the party promoting and gaining the planning permission entitled to off-set the costs of acquiring the planning permission.

If interested, further clarification can be discussed with the Agents.
