

The Old Bell House, The Green
Tanworth-In-Arden, Warwickshire B94 5AJ
Offers In The Region Of £475,000

The Old Bell House is an attractive and well-presented, three-bedroomed Grade II listed cottage, occupying a prominent position in the heart of the highly regarded village of Tanworth-in-Arden. This distinguished property combines period charm with versatile accommodation, making it a desirable home within this sought-after Warwickshire location.

The interior retains a wealth of character features, including exposed timber beams, a traditional bay window, quarry tiled flooring, and a feature log burner stove. The accommodation is arranged to provide three well-proportioned reception rooms, a breakfast kitchen and three bathrooms, one of which is situated on the ground floor. All three bedrooms are generous doubles, offering comfortable and practical living space throughout.

Externally, the property benefits from a low-maintenance private rear garden, while on-road parking is available to the front. A garage may also be available by separate negotiation.

This property is offered with no upward chain and presents a rare opportunity to acquire a period home of considerable character in a thriving and well-connected village, with convenient access to Solihull, Stratford-upon-Avon, Birmingham and the surrounding Warwickshire countryside.

Tanworth-in-Arden is a charming village with an active local community and provides such facilities as The Bell (pub and restaurant), highly regarded primary school with nursery, 13th Century parish church, village hall, and golf and tennis clubs. It is well placed for easy access to the M40 and M42 motorways, which, in turn, give links to the M1, M5 and M5, enabling efficient travel to Birmingham, Coventry and London. The nearest railway stations ("Danzey" and "Wood End") offer regular trains to Stratford-upon-Avon, Henley-in-Arden and Birmingham City Centre. In addition, the NEC and Birmingham International Airport are within a half an hour's drive.
