Nestled within the picturesque rural hamlet of Ham Green, Cruise Hill Cottage is a charming Grade II Listed detached period home set in just under two acres of mature gardens and grounds offering an abundance of character, generous living accommodation extending to approximately 2,660 sq. ft., and a wealth of versatile outbuildings. Believed to date back to the 16th century, the property retains many original features and is recognised for its historic timber-framed construction and architectural significance.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and briefly comprises a welcoming reception hall, a spacious dual-aspect living room with feature fireplace, an elegant dining room, a well-proportioned kitchen/breakfast room with adjoining pantry and storage, together with a ground floor cloakroom/WC.

To the first floor are three generous double bedrooms, all enjoying pleasant views over the surrounding countryside, together with a family bathroom and useful landing storage.

Externally, the property truly excels, benefiting from substantial detached outbuildings including a large party barn, separate garden shed/workshop and an additional detached store building, offering outstanding potential for hobbies, entertaining, storage or ancillary use (subject to any necessary consents). The mature grounds provide a delightful rural setting with ample parking and space to enjoy the surrounding landscape.

Occupying a sought-after semi-rural location whilst remaining conveniently placed for Redditch, Alcester and excellent road links, Cruise Hill Cottage presents a rare opportunity to acquire a beautifully preserved period home combining historic charm with versatile modern family living.
