£450,000 Freehold

A beautifully presented, chain free, three bedroom detached home on a sought-after, no-through road. Rarely available and immaculately presented throughout, it occupies a desirable corner plot just a short walk from the mainline station and the historic high street.

Stepping through the entrance porch into the entrance hall, the quality of this home is immediately apparent. The full-length, dual and triple-aspect living room is a particular highlight, with French doors opening onto the rear garden - a wonderful space for relaxing and entertaining. The dining room offers further generous living space and an archway leads through to the well-proportioned galley kitchen, with convenient access to a downstairs wc, a useful utility area, and a further door out to the rear garden.

Upstairs, three generously sized bedrooms are served by a well-appointed shower room, completing this thoughtfully laid-out, move-in ready home.

Outside, the property truly comes into its own. A wraparound garden envelops the corner plot, lovingly landscaped by the current green-fingered owners, with mature, well-stocked borders creating distinct seating areas to enjoy throughout the day. The garden is further complemented by outbuildings, all benefitting from a power supply, ideal for use as a home office, workshop, or additional storage. A driveway provides off-road parking to the front for two cars.
