Steeped in history and full of soul, this remarkable Grade II-listed former inn sits proudly in the heart of Robertsbridge's picturesque High Street, offering over 3,700 sq ft of truly atmospheric living space spread across three floors — all beautifully restored and brimming with period charm. Behind its handsome façade lies a rich and layered interior: think grand reception rooms with exposed brick and ancient beams, lofty ceilings, roaring fireplaces, and a magnificent Jacobean staircase sweeping through the heart of the home. The kitchen brings a stylish modern twist, cleverly designed around original features, while the generous bedrooms, one with en-suite, span the upper floors with vaulted ceilings, exposed timbers and glorious views over the village rooftops. The cellar below tells its own story, with carved stone, niches, and an enchanting spiral staircase revealing the building's 15th-century roots. Outside, the rear garden is a peaceful retreat — thoughtfully landscaped with mature planting, a lawn and patio, and gated access to a shared garage and parking beyond. Perfectly positioned within the High Weald Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, with countryside walks, destination dining and heritage landmarks all close by, not to mention Robertsbridge station just a few minutes' stroll away with direct links to London — this is an extraordinary home offering history, lifestyle and character in abundance. A rare gem not to be missed.
