This well-proportioned four-bedroom family home is nestled within a desirable village setting and offers a balanced mix of traditional character and modern convenience. With a private garden, spacious living areas, and a double garage, it's an ideal home for family life—with scope for further development, subject to planning. A welcoming hallway with polished wooden floors and a cast iron radiator leads to the main living spaces. The generous living room enjoys dual-aspect windows and a striking brick fireplace with a wooden mantle and gas fire. A triple-aspect conservatory with tiled flooring connects to both the living and dining rooms, offering an ideal space to relax while enjoying views of the garden. The kitchen features a range of white units with wooden worktops, tiled flooring, a gas range cooker, integrated fridge-freezer, and a curved brick detail. A brick arch links the kitchen to the dining room, which overlooks the well-maintained garden. Upstairs are three spacious double bedrooms and a further fourth bedroom. The main bedroom includes built-in wardrobes and an en suite bathroom with a bath, shower attachment, WC, and basin. The second double also features generous storage, and the third overlooks the rear garden. A family bathroom offers a walk-in shower, separate bath, feature sink, towel radiator, and part-tiled walls. A useful utility room provides extra workspace, a sink, space for laundry appliances, and a separate WC. Outside, the private rear garden features a lawn, patio, circular paved area, and gated side access. The double garage offers excellent storage and also presents potential for conversion above to create additional living space, subject to the necessary consents.
