Locality

Situated in the increasingly popular seaside village of Camber, only a short walk from the famous sand dunes, miles of open beach and a newly constructed promenade. The village has become a haven for water sports enthusiasts although there are many other activities available locally including places of general and historic interest.

The ancient Cinque Port town of Rye is only a short drive away with its bustling High Street where there is an array of specialist and general retail stores which are complemented by historic inns and restaurants as well as contemporary wine bars and eateries. There is also the famous cobbled citadel, working quayside, weekly farmers' and general markets.

The railway station in Rye allows easy access to the city of Brighton the west and to Ashford where there are connecting services to London and Continental Europe.
