

6 Hillcrest, Rye, East Sussex TN31 7HP
£365,000 Freehold

Situated on the edge of Rye this attractive and newly modernised three bedroom mid terraced house includes a stylish newly fitted kitchen, bathroom and downstairs WC as well as a complete redecoration of all the other rooms. The ground floor accommodation comprises an entrance hall leading to a welcoming living/dining room, a newly fitted kitchen/diner and updated downstairs WC. Double doors lead into the conservatory offering direct access to the enclosed private garden. To the first floor the landing leads to three good sized bedrooms and a newly fitted bathroom, the master having fitted wardrobes. Offering comfortable and versatile accommodation for couples, families or those working from home. Outside the property has an open plan front garden with parking along with a single garage and additional parking located close to the property. Rye offers a wonderful blend of historic character and modern convenience, with an excellent range of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and everyday amenities, alongside a thriving arts scene and annual Rye Arts Festival. The town's picturesque streets, medieval fortifications and rich maritime history make it a highly desirable place to live. Local rail services connect Rye with Eastbourne and Ashford, where high-speed services provide links to London St Pancras.
